24th January 2025. Spring Term No 3

Beat the Blues Day

On Monday Mrs Young and I took 6 children from year 2 to Cowplain Shops to spread happiness and joy. They were a super set of Giving Citizens giving out their flowers and brightening up other peoples day. Two ladies has sent us a thank you card for brightening up their day.

Smart Watches and Phones

Please note these are not allowed in school and any worn/seen will be removed to be collected from the school office.

PIPSA - Sponsored Bounce

The attached letter will be sent home in your child’s book bag today. Please return the sponsor form by Monday 10th February at the latest.

PIPSA Bake Sale

Thank you for supporting Monday’s Bake Sale. A massive £243.50 was raised and once again will go into the playground pot. A huge thank you to the PIPSA team of bakers.

Year R – Numbots

If your child is in Year R, please see the attached letter.

Wear a Scarf Day

As part of Children’s Mental Health week, we are asking all children to wear a scarf to school on Thursday 13th February.

PHSE lessons/ SCARF: Safety, Caring, Achievement, Resilience and Friendship.

Uniform Clearance

As you will have seen from our email yesterday, we are having a clearance sale on the remaining uniform we have in stock at school. From Monday, you will be able to purchase uniform on Scopay at a bargain price.

Reminder – please can we remind you that our uniform is grey trousers or skirts. Leggings are not acceptable. There are some exceptions for children diagnosed with sensory needs. Everyone else should be wearing the specified uniform. This includes plain black sturdy foot wear. Thank you.

If you are having any difficulty purchasing any of the items please speak directly to our parent partner in the Hub.

Celebration Assembly

Celebration Assemblies are held most Friday afternoons. Birthdays, outside achievements (children can bring in certificates/trophies etc.) and Golden Acorn recipients are celebrated. We also celebrate good attendance, reading and home learning.

In addition, each week every class teacher chooses a child (two in Year R) to receive a "Padnell Promise Award". These are children who have demonstrated one of our "Grow" values. The parents of these children are invited to attend the assembly, via an email the week before.
